MEET THE CONDUCTOR

Mark Camphouse  A product of the rich cultural life of Chicago, composer-conductor Mark Camphouse was born in Oak Park, Illinois in 1954. He received undergraduate and graduate degrees in music from Northwestern University, where he studied composition with Alan Stout, conducting with John P. Paynter, and trumpet with Vincent Cichowicz. A scholarship from the Civic Orchestra of Chicago enabled Camphouse to study trumpet privately for two years with the late, legendary Chicago Symphony Principal Trumpet Emeritus, Adolph Herseth.

Mr. Camphouse began composing at an early age, with the Colorado Philharmonic premiering his First Symphony when he was 17. His 30 published works for wind band have received widespread critical acclaim and are performed frequently in the U.S. and abroad, in such prestigious venues as Carnegie Hall, The Kennedy Center, Orchestra Hall (Chicago), Royal Albert Hall (London), and at conferences of the World Association for Symphonic Bands and Ensembles, College Band Directors National Association, National Association for Music Education, American Bandmasters Association, Texas Bandmasters Association, and the Midwest Clinic. Principal commissions include those by the William D. Revelli Foundation, The U.S. Army Band, The U.S. Marine Band, Northshore Concert Band, and some of America’s finest high school, college and university, and community bands.

Mr. Camphouse has served as guest conductor, lecturer, and clinician in 43 states, and in Canada, Europe, and China. He was elected to membership in the American Bandmasters Association in 1999 and has served as founding coordinator of the National Band Association Young Composer Mentor Project since 2000. He conceived and edited the unique four-volume book series for GIA Publications Composers on Composing for Band. His fifth book with GIA Publications, Whatsoever Things … The Life and Teachings of John P. Paynter, was published in 2014.

The 2015-2016 academic year marks Camphouse’s 38th year of full-time teaching in higher education. In 2006, Professor Camphouse joined the faculty of George Mason University, where he serves as conductor of the Wind Symphony and teaches courses in composition and conducting. Other principal artistic, teaching, and administrative positions have included serving as Music Director and Conductor of the New Mexico Music Festival at Taos Symphony Orchestra, Associate Director and Music Division Head of the Virginia Governor’s School for the Arts, Acting Dean of Music at New World School for the Arts, and Interim Director of the George Mason University School of Music.

Professor Camphouse attained regional finalist status in the prestigious White House Fellowship Competition in 1992. In 2002, he received an Outstanding Faculty Award sponsored by the State Council of Higher Education for Virginia, the Commonwealth’s highest honor for faculty at Virginia’s college and universities, for demonstrated excellence in teaching, research, and public service. In 2011, Camphouse received the Kappa Kappa Psi Distinguished Service to Music Award in recognition of and appreciation for valuable contributions to the growth and development of the modern college/university band in the field of composition. This December, he and Mason School of Music Professor Anthony Maiello will receive awards for their achievements in composition and conducting from Phi Beta Mu International Bandmasters Fraternity during the Midwest Clinic in Chicago. Mark has been married to Elizabeth Ann Curtis (Director of Mason’s Potomac Arts Academy) since 1982. They have twin daughters, Beth and Briton.
MEET THE SOLOISTS

Joe Antonucci (Trumpet) is in the first semester of graduate school at George Mason University. He received his Bachelor Degree in Music Education from Mason as well. He is currently pursuing a Master Degree in Trumpet Performance, and holds a graduate assistantship position with Doctor Michael Nickens and the George Mason Green Machine Pep Band. He has performed in a variety of ensembles at Mason, in addition to performing locally and at the University of Maryland. He has also performed for Busch Gardens in their revamped production of Mix It Up! during their 2014 summer season.

Joe has spent most of the last year teaching in Fairfax County. He was hired as the brass caption head of the Westfield High School Marching Band, he currently teaches sectionals for concert bands at multiple schools in Fairfax County, and, in March, he will begin a long-term substitute position at Annandale Terrace Elementary.

Chandler Comer (Trombone) is an American trombonist and composer from Centreville, Virginia. He is currently a sophomore at George Mason University, where he performs with the Wind Symphony, Jazz Ensemble, and other chamber groups. He began playing trombone at the age of 10 and has also picked up trumpet, euphonium, piano, and guitar in his nine years as a dedicated musician. He began composing at the age of 13 and published his first concert band piece, Beyond the Clouds, at age 14 with LudwigMasters, Publications. Since then, he has gone on to publish two more works with LudwigMasters, and has written and premiered numerous pieces for concert band, jazz ensemble, brass quintet, and trombone choir during his high school and college years. He intends to graduate from George Mason University in 2018 with a B.S. in Mechanical Engineering.

Jeff Hudson (Tuba) has taught courses in Music Fundamentals, Low Brass Methods, and Aural Skills at George Mason University. Also a doctoral student, he extensively studies brass pedagogy and methodology as they apply to various embouchure and performance issues and is also currently researching the possibilities of wind instrument use as a therapeutic option for common medical breathing disorders.

As a freelance tubist, Jeff has performed with members of the National Symphony Orchestra, the Baltimore Symphony, The Metropolitan Opera, The Philadelphia Orchestra, and the Richmond Symphony Orchestra, among others. He has served as an educator, clinician, and soloist in various settings in the Virginia, Maryland, D.C. area.

Hudson studied with Dr. Ross Walter at Virginia Commonwealth University in Richmond, Virginia, where he received his Bachelor of Music Degree in Tuba Performance. From there, he traveled to Baltimore to study with David Fedderly at the Peabody Conservatory of The Johns Hopkins University, earning a Master of Music Degree. Currently Jeff lives in Washington, D.C., and is pursuing a DMA here at Mason while studying with Professor Andrew Hitz.
