Please list the event(s) you would like to see and fax them to 703-993-8650 with a copy of your class schedule (downloaded from PatriotWeb—do not hand write your schedule) the Tuesday the week before the week of the event. For example: If you would like to see Kings of Salsa on Saturday, Oct. 1, 2011, you can fax your request as early as September 20, 2011. Please see the Center for the Arts website (cfa.gmu.edu/students) for calendar information, available student ticket dates and policies. Tickets for your requested events can neither be exchanged, nor can the seat locations be moved once the tickets are issued. For any additional questions, please call the Center for the Arts Ticket Office at 703-993-2787.

Please PRINT neatly and complete all required fields for illegible or incomplete forms will not be fulfilled.

EVENT NAME & VENUE	DATE & TIME <small>(pay close attention to events with multiple show times)</small>	# FREE TICKETS <small>(1 or 2 per Student ID)</small>	COMPANION TICKETS <small>(Limit 1 per Student ID)</small>	FULL PRICE TICKETS	COURSE & SECTION <small>(only if fulfilling a class assignment)</small>

* For some events there are a limited number of student tickets available. For these events, students are allowed only one free ticket, although they may obtain a second free ticket 30 minutes before the event, if available. Events with limited student tickets are noted. Part time students attending an event as a class requirement are exempt from the credit hour criteria and may pickup tickets using the same procedure as full time students, as long as student tickets remain available. Students may also buy one discounted ticket companion ticket for most events. Additional tickets are available at full price. All event patrons, including children, are required to have a ticket for ticketed events, even those events labeled as "Free/Ticketed," like the Vision Series lectures.

If you wish to purchase a companion and/or full price ticket, please provide payment information below:
